

VISION: AIRY

THE DESIGN FOR THIS HOME IN A LEAFY VANCOUVER NEIGHBORHOOD APPEARED TO ONE OF ITS OWNERS IN A DREAM.

The compact living room includes a pair of Barcelona chairs and a Fritz Hansen daybed, as well as a fireplace wall given greater presence by a Darius Bebel painting. Perhaps less expected is the glass-pan koi pond and fountain around which the house is built. Right (from top): The approach to the front door only hints at the openness inside; with all the back glass walls open, the house is seamless to the yard (Janet Bayda, Graeme Boniface and Pico gather at the intersection of the family room, kitchen and dining room).
